

Monday, October 17th 2011.

09.00: Registration

09.45: Opening Remarks (Anfiteatro Nobre)

10.00: Inaugural Lecture: John Kullman (Canterbury Christ Church University, England)
"The Materials World: Culture and the 'global' English language textbook in the 21st Century"

11.00/11.30 : Coffee break.

11.30: Parallel Workshops

A (Room 306): Siân Preece (Institute of Education, University of London)

"Envisaging the English language classroom as a multilingual space"

B (Room 308): Victor Pavón (Córdoba University, Spain)

"The Implementation of CLIL programmes: the case of Andalusia (Spain)"

12.30/14.00 : Lunch break

14.00: Parallel Workshops

A (Room 306): Ana Gonçalves Matos (FCSH/Universidade Nova Lisboa)

"Literary texts in TEFL as space for intercultural learning"

B (Room 308): John Cleary (Heriot-Watt University, Edinburgh, Scotland)

"Working in international collaborative projects: appropriate methodologies and specific purposes"

15.00/15.30 : Coffee break.

15.30: Parallel Workshops

A (Room 306): Riitta Jaatinen (Tampere University, Finland)

"Unpredictability as a resource. Autobiographical narratives and search for authenticity in the language classroom"

B (Room 308): Pham Hoa Hiep (Hué College of Foreign Languages, Vietnam)

"World Englishes: Implications for EFL Teachers and Students"

20h00 for the OFFICIAL FORUM DINNER at Casa Agricola Restaurante
[behind Bom Sucesso Shopping Centre, fixed price 25 euro inclusive menu, reservation required]

Tuesday, October 18th 2011.

09.00:

Lecture (Anfiteatro Nobre): Brian Tomlinson (Leeds Metropolitan University, England)

“Using a DEEPA Approach with Young Learners”

10.15/10.30 : Coffee break.

10.30:

Workshop (Room 308) : Sandie Mourão (Associação Portuguesa de Professores de Inglês)

“The potential of picturebooks”

11.30:

Workshop (Room 308): Hitomi Masuhara (Leeds Metropolitan University, England)

“They All Have Stories to Tell: Helping Learners to Express Themselves”

12.30/13.30 : Lunch break

13.30:

Workshop (Room 308): Cristina Pinto da Silva (CEI/ISCAP - Instituto Politécnico do Porto)

“Looking at the wood and the trees: learners’ theories in the English Language classroom”

14.30:

Workshop (Room 308): James Thomas (Masaryk University, Brno, Czech Republic)

“Web of Words: online tools for studying vocabulary through text”

