

Professor Joana Rita Pinho Resende, Associated Professor of the Faculty of Economics, Vice-Rector of the University of Porto:

Following my order dated of 29th July 2022, and exercising the delegated competency by Order published in the Official Gazette, 2nd Series, no. 148, of 2nd August 2022, for a period of thirty days, counting from the date immediately following the publication of this notice in the Official Gazette, we are currently inviting applications for the position of Assistant Professor in the disciplinary area of Sport Science of the Faculty of Sport of the University of Porto.

1. The applicable legal provisions are as follows:

Articles 37 to 51, 61 and 62-A, of the University Teaching Career Statute (ECDU), republished in Decree-Law no. 205/2009, of 31 August, and amended by Law no. 8/2010, of 13 May; Regulation on Competition for the Recruitment of Full, Associate and Assistant Professor of the University of Porto – Order no 12913/2010, published in the Official Gazette, no. 154, of 10 August 2010 and the Amendment Resolution (excerpt) no. 380/2019, published in the Official Gazette, 2nd Series, no. 64 of 1 April 2019.

2. Eligible candidates:

2.1. Under the provisions of Article 41-A of the ECDU, all candidates in this call for applications must hold a doctoral degree.

If the doctoral degree was awarded by a foreign higher education institution, it must be recognized by a Portuguese higher education institution, under the terms of the article 4 of the Decree-Law no. 66/2018, published in the Official Gazette, 1st series, no. 157 of 16 August. This formality must be accomplished by the application deadline.

3.1. If there are no grounds for rejecting the candidates, the Jury will decide on their approval or non-approval in absolute merit, by justified nominal vote, with no abstentions being admitted.

3.2. A candidate who is approved by an absolute majority of the voting jury members is considered approved on absolute merit.

3.3. Approval in absolute merit of candidates depends on the possession of a global curriculum that the jury reasonably considers to be of scientific and pedagogical merit, research capacity and developed activity, compatible with the disciplinary area for which the competition was opened and appropriate to the respective teaching category, as documented in the respective information submitted to the tender.

3.4. For the purposes of the assessment referred to in the previous point, the positive vote must be based on the cumulative fulfilment of the following circumstances or requirements of a qualitative and quantitative nature:

- a) The candidate must hold a Doctor's degree in Sports Science, with a thesis theme admittedly related to Sports Training - Football, in particular in the analysis of interpersonal networks and individual and collective performance;
- b) Have, in the 5 years prior to the date of this competition, scientific production in the area of Sports Training - Football, in particular in the analysis of interpersonal networks and individual and collective performance, with at least 15 publications as co-author, of which 5 as first or last author, namely articles in journals indexed in international databases and with peer review, books or book chapters (the author's editions or articles and abstracts published in journals or conference proceedings are excluded);
- c) Have had, in the 5 years prior to the date of this competition, teaching activity in higher education institutions, with experience of teaching curricular units in the area of Sports Training - Football, in particular in the analysis of interpersonal networks and individual and collective;
- d) Proficiency in spoken and written Portuguese - candidates of foreign nationality, except those from Portuguese-speaking Countries, must have mastery of spoken and written Portuguese, at the common reference level B1, or higher. This requirement is officially recognized through a certificate or diploma of communicative competence in Portuguese from the Council of Europe's Common European Framework of Reference for Languages;
- e) Proficiency in the English language.

4. Evaluation and ranking in relative merit

Once the candidates approved in absolute merit have been definitively identified, they are ordered in relative merit, based on the aspects and ranking criteria, respective weighting and final valuation system, established in accordance with the provisions of no. 6 of article 50 of the ECDU and 16 of the Regulation.

4.1. Evaluation methodology

Candidates approved on absolute merit are subject to a curricular evaluation, bearing in mind the general functions assigned to university professors by article 4 of the ECDU.

5 – Procedural guidelines for the Selection Committee

5.1. Candidates' score

Each member of the jury makes their reasoned assessment, scoring each candidate in relation to each aspect, on a scale from 0 to 100 points, considering the criteria approved for each aspect, with a degree of demand adjusted to the category for which the competition is open.

5.2. Public hearing:

The Selection Committee will hold public hearings, under equal circumstances for all candidates approved on absolute merit, which are intended to clarify specific aspects of the documentation submitted by the candidates.

If there is a need to hold these public hearings, they will take place between the 30th day and the 70th day following the deadline for submitting the application, with all candidates being informed, by email, at least five working days in advance, the date and place where these public hearings will take place. Public hearings may be held by teleconference.

4.3. Final result:

The final result (RF) of the evaluation of each candidate by each member of the Selection Committee is calculated through the sum of the scores in each parameter:

$$RF = (0,65x*VI) + (0,25x*VE) + (0,10x*VTC)$$

considering its particular weighting, as defined in the table presented in Annex I of this Public Notice.

5.4 – Jury deliberations

5.4.1 Any deliberation results of no.12 of Article 17 of the Regulation on Call for the Recruitment of Full,

Associate and Assistant Professors of the University of Porto – Order 12913/2010, published in the Official Gazette, no. 154, of 10 August 2010, applicable under Article 83-A of the ECDU, which determined the adoption of that Order to implement the provisions of that statute, including the procedural conduct of calls, namely the system of evaluation and final ranking.

Thus, under no.12 of Article 17 of that Regulation, the jury will decide, by nominal voting based on the adopted and disclosed selection criteria, on the approval and ranking of the candidates. An absolute majority is required for any resolution, i.e., a number of votes at least equal to half plus one of the votes of the present members, and no abstentions are not allowed.

5.4.2 – The ranking methodology is the following:

In the various ballots, each member of the jury must respect his or her ranking list, observing the following in the voting:

- a) the first vote is to determine the candidate placed 1st, counting the number of votes that each candidate obtained for that position;
- b) if a candidate obtains an absolute majority of the votes for 1st place, he or she shall be placed in that position and shall be removed from the ballot, the procedure to choose the candidate who will occupy 2nd place being initiated;
- c) if no candidate obtains an absolute majority of the votes for 1st place, a new ballot shall begin, only among the candidates who obtained votes for 1st place, after the withdrawal of the candidate who received the least votes for that place in the previous ballot
- d) In case there is a tie between two or more candidates in the position of least voted for, a tie-breaking vote shall be held only between them, counting the number of first positions relative to each one, and the one with the least vote shall be removed;
- e) should the tie subsist between two or more candidates in the position of least voted, but having reduced the number of candidates tied in the position of least voted, in relation to the previous voting round, a new tie-breaking vote shall be held only between the candidates tied in the position of least voted, counting the number of first relative positions of each one, and the one who received the least voted shall be removed;
- f) should the tie subsist between two or more candidates in the position of least voted, without the number of candidates tied in the position of least voted having been reduced, in relation to the previous voting round, the tie shall be broken by the President's casting vote or by the exercise of the casting vote, as the case may be, the candidate voted by the President being chosen to integrate the subsequent voting for the same position;
- g) In case there is a tie when only two or more candidates remain for the 1st place, the tie-breaker is made through the Chairperson's casting vote or by the exercise of the casting vote, as the case may be;
- h) When the candidate for 1st place is chosen, he/she shall leave the voting and the procedure for choosing the candidate to be placed in 2nd place shall begin, repeating the process referred to in the previous subparagraphs for the subsequent places until a single ordered list of all the candidates is obtained.
